

Politicians of Ukrainian opposition parties have to fear for their lives

A short time ago an open letter reached us in which a Ukrainian parliament delegate wrote:

The ruling politicians are threatening us, openly and concretely, with physical destruction

A short time ago an open letter reached us in which a Ukrainian parliament delegate wrote:

„I, Jelena Bondarenko, public deputy for the people of the regions where the opposition is in power at the moment declare in this statement:

The ruling politicians are threatening us, openly and concretely, with physical destruction, that we have been forbidden by them inside and outside of the parliament to use freedom of speech and that they are involved in criminal acts against oppositional politicians and their children. Constant threats, secretly being banned from Ukrainian television channels and aimed attacks to our person are now daily experiences for parliament members of oppositional parties in Ukraine. Everyone who appeals for peace in Ukraine is defamed as an “enemy of the people” by those in power. A few days ago the Ukrainian minister of the interior Arsen Avakov, who is an ardent member of the so-called “war-party” in the Ukraine stated the following: “When Jelena Bondarenko speaks in parliament, I would like to use my pistol.” I emphasize: this is a statement from the man who has been given the authority over all the police chiefs in a country.

Exactly a week ago, Alexander Turtschinov the president of the parliament deprived me - as representative of the opposition fraction: “Regional parties” - deprived me of my right to freedom of speech in parliament. This ban on freedom of speech resulted only because I had said that a power which sends its army to bombard peaceful cities is criminal. After this he (the president) generously gave the radical parliamentary delegates chance to call for the shooting of all opposition.”

Valued viewers, how would the West have responded if the overthrown government of Janukovitch had dealt with oppositional politicians like the coup-government is now doing? Would all have kept silent as they are now? Just this problem: the problem of one-sided reporting, is addressed in a recent petition to the Swiss government. The author writes very pointedly: “The media are stirring up emotion against Russia and President Putin. With suggestive insinuations like: ‘It seems to have been proven’..., ‘We assume’... or ‘The suspicion grows’..., blame is being laid on Russia and Putin

. Without proving the claims, our media quotes the propaganda and on the other hand never mentions what the Russian government says to these claims. This manipulation is dangerous enough to start a world war. We demand that the federal government immediately restrain the mass media! Fact based, honest, balanced and especially information proven as correct must be provided again to all citizens! All polemic and one-sided false accusations must stop”

Thank you for helping to stop this scandal of one-sided information, by informing those around you about it and recommending Kla-tv to others!
