

British journalist after returning from Aleppo: Everyone was speaking of the rebels' atrocities.

Just like the UK priest, Andrew Ashdown, who reported of his experiences after his return from Aleppo you are going to listen to another eye-witness in this broadcast who also arrived at a completely different conclusion than that presented by western mainstream media: Vanessa Beeley.

Just like the UK priest, Andrew Ashdown, who reported of his experiences after his return from Aleppo you are going to listen to another eye-witness in this broadcast who also arrived at a completely different conclusion than that presented by western mainstream media: Vanessa Beeley.

Vanessa Beeley is a British investigative journalist known for exact and thorough research who has specialized on the Middle East. Vanessa Beeley had just returned to Damascus after a 3-day visit to Aleppo when she gave an interview to Ron Paul, the US-American politician and former delegate of the House of Representatives. In the following you will listen to the most important excerpts of the live broadcast from December 15, 2016:
